Enough is Enough

Friday, November 6 • 11 a.m. to noon

University of Wisconsin - Fond du Lac

Large Group Instruction Room (UC-113/UC-114)

Meet Asha Camille Jennings. She took a moral stand and said, “No More!” regarding the negative depictions of women in rap videos. Jennings’ grass roots efforts has helped change the lives of many young women (and men) by reiterating that respect should be demanded in all aspects life by saying, “Enough is enough.” Jennings showed the rap industry and the world that the degradation and exploitation of women must stop...and not just in music videos.

Asha Camille Jennings

Jennings is passionate about politics and government. She is a graduate of New York University School of Law and is now working at King & Spalding, LLP in Atlanta as a business litigation associate.
